

2024 K2PD EVENT RULES

- There is a ZERO tolerance on noise at the start line in Kuranda so as not to disturb any of the neighbours!
- You must complete the marked course on foot under your own power. Trekking poles are permitted.
- You must stay on the marked course. Short cuts are not permitted. If you think you have gone the wrong way, check your map, wait for another competitor or go back.
- Your race bib must be visible at all times on the front of your body.
- You must carry the Mandatory Gear for the entirety of the event – you must produce the gear on request from a race official.
- It is your responsibility to get your name ticked off at all designated checkpoints.
- No roads are closed for this event. The speed limit on Black Mountain Road is 80km/hr. Look and listen for vehicles and get out of the way. Obey all road rules.
- Use earphones with EXTREME caution. Preferably only use one ear bud. You must remain aware of your surroundings at all times. You need to listen for vehicles and any calls for help.
- At approximately 54km, you must cross UNDER the highway. Follow the arrows and flagging tape. You will NEVER run on the highway. You will NEVER cross over the highway. If you do either of these things, you will immediately be disqualified from the event.
- Give way to vehicles, trail bikes, mountain/road bikes, pedestrians, horses, pigs, cassowaries, snakes. Pretty much everything and everyone.
- This event is not suitable for walkers. All competitors must reach the Highway Checkpoint by 5.00pm. Race officials can and will withdraw competitors from anywhere along the course, as required.
- If you need First Aid help on the course you must attract the attention of another runner, track user, motorist or go to the nearest checkpoint or to the finish line.
- If you withdraw from the event, report to the closest checkpoint or finish line and hand in your race bib. Please Do NOT leave without informing someone!
- If another competitor is in trouble, you must stop to help them.
- You must obey all directions of race officials.
- Use of profanity or aggression towards race officials or other competitors will result in immediate disqualification from the event. The volunteers/marshals on the course are NOT the people to talk to or abuse if you have a problem, speak directly to one of the race directors.
- Do Not Litter - Put your rubbish in the bins provided at the checkpoints and the start/finish.
- If you need to go to the toilet, either get well off the track and use “leave no trace” principles or use a toilet, a “go anywhere toilet kit” or similar.
- Leave gates as you find them.
- Support crews must follow the instructions of race officials.
- The event organiser is not responsible for the safety or whereabouts of support crew.
- For safety reasons, and due to the terrain, wheelchairs are unable to compete in this event.
- All decisions of the race directors are final. The race directors are the sole judge of fact, there is no right of appeal regarding any decision made by the race directors.

Breaking any of the rules may incur a time penalty or disqualification. Any such penalties are at the race directors' discretion and are final.
